

PRIME CONTRACT EXPIRATION – FIXED-PRICE

- (a) This Contract may be assigned, novated, or transferred to a successor-in-interest, a successor contractor to operate the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, or the Government.
- (b) For Contracts with progress payments, the Contractor shall submit a report with the total amount invoiced corresponding to the total progress payments received through September 30, 2003. For Contracts without progress payments, the Contractor shall submit a report with the total amount invoiced through September 30, 2003. The purpose of the invoice report is to enable JPL to allocate and account for monies billed under the current and successor JPL/NASA prime contract. Invoices submitted on or before September 30, 2003, shall be allocated to the current JPL/NASA prime contract. Invoices submitted after September 30, 2003, shall be allocated to the successor prime contract. Backup financial records and invoices should be retained for a reasonable period of time following the Contract end date.
